Dear Students,

The staff of the Faculty of Applied Sciences, RUSL, with pleasure welcome you all to our Faculty.

The relationships you develop here with the faculty, staff and fellow students will immensely help you to become a graduate from our university as a professional in the field of your specialty. We assure that we will support you on your way. We hope you will thrive as a student at the Faculty of Applied Sciences, RUSL throughout the study program. Your success in studies and well-being is important to us as it is to you. Now it's your turn to set out on this exciting journey.

We have a custom of welcoming new entrants to our university and faculty through orientation programme for new entrants. However, the orientation for the 2018/19 batch has been already completed and this programme is separately organized for you group, as the students of the special entry of the B.Sc. in Health Promotion. Therefore, during this week, you all are having part of the orientation program according to the schedule attached. Please get maximum use of this time and be prepared to follow semester courses soon.

Best Wishes,
